KTest

更に上のクオリティ　更に上のサービス

問題集

Exam : 000-M223

Title : Tivoli Security Sales
Mastery Test v3

Version : DEMO

1.Which three key requirements are addressed by the Mainframe Enterprise Security Hub?

A. simplified user identity administration, generation of reports that show compliance posture, and better control over privileged user access

B. policy-based access control, EAL 4+ Common criteria rated implementation, and 24x7 awareness of breaches

C. application security, data disclosure and privacy compliance, and network security

D. secure storage, firewall management and Intrusion detection management

Answer: B,C,D

2.The example that was given of security in the automobile industry made which key point?

A. Security protects best when it's directed at external threats.

B. Security gets a lot of focus early on, but over time, that focus can be dropped or neglected.

C. Security is an important add-on. just like car seats for children in automobiles.

D. As an industry or focus area evolves, the evolution is from an attitude of security being an afterthought to security being designed in from the beginning.

Answer: D

3.In the discussion about Smarter Planet and its security implications, which of the following was given as an example of how Smarter Planet initiatives drive security requirements?

A. There are many military applications involved in Smarter Planet and these haveobvious security requirements that they drive

B. The information/data that Smarter Planet initiatives often rely upon needs to be segmented and secured to ensure access is only by those with appropriate access rights.

C. Smarter Planet almost always involves virtual implementations and these can have significant security holes, if they are not addressed.

D. Smarter Planet really brings home the need for traditional security such as anti-virus and firewall technology

Answer: B

4.What are the 3 focus areas highlighted in this presentation?

A. identity & access assurance, data & application security and data center & operational security

B. mainframe, distributed and virtualized environments

C. network security, systems security and application security

D. administration time security, application development time security and run-time security

Answer: B

5.According to Forrester Research, which type of security is most often cited as a "very important" or "important" issue for IT Security organizations?

A. system security

B. network security

C. application security

D. data security

Answer: D